

Giving South Africans a chance to live better lives

Eruditio provides quality skills-development training and enterprise and supplier development solutions by partnering with corporate companies across South Africa.

Eruditio was founded by Joel Emmanuel in 2012. Eruditio exists to transform the South African business landscape as well as to transform the lives of ordinary South Africans so that they can create sustainable incomes for themselves and their families.

We achieve this by partnering with corporate companies and by offering skills-development training and enterprise and supplier development solutions to help upskill qualifying learners, entrepreneurs and SMMEs.

We make sure that we provide high-quality, transparent and measurable impact to our partners, clients and beneficiaries.

Programme management, execution and reporting are key components within our service delivery.

The services we offer have made a concrete difference in the quality of lives lived by South Africans.

Statistics

ENTERPRISE AND SUPPLIER DEVELOPMENT (ESD) MANAGEMENT

We offer development, management and reporting of enterprise development and supplier development programmes, all aimed at helping entrepreneurs and SMMEs in South Africa grow through our expert skills development, incubation and mentoring services.

As a South African business incubator, we have the skills and resources to support the growth and development of entrepreneurs through our enterprise and supplier development. Our business incubation programme gives entrepreneurs and SMMEs access to:

- business skills
- education
- business facilities and Internet connectivity
- business experts
- markets
- expert coaching and mentoring

Enterprise Development Programmes (ESDs)

We manage the enterprise development programmes for many corporate companies in South Africa. We ensure that each enterprise development programme is designed to meet the needs of the individual business owner.

Supplier Development Programmes (SDPs)

Transitioning enterprise development candidates or enterprises that are already established have access to our supplier development programmes. We work in collaboration with supply chain and procurement to help develop these entrepreneurs and SMMEs to access procurement opportunities.
